

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 18.

IT SEEMS that some of the anti-Mahone republicans don't expect to derive much benefit from the conference called by Gen eral Groner. They appear to think the fact that the General called that conference in his individual capacity, and not as their official chairman, as he should have done, because he was elected as such and has never resigned nor been deposed, indicates that the General is still looking for the lost compromisa, which, now that Mr. Brady has received his reward, will never be found, and that it is weak and silly to look for it any longer. But there is an indication that some of the original republicans of the State, aided by the most influential of the men Gen Mahone 'ed out of the democratic party, are engaged in an independent movement, the power and influence of which will soon be come apparent, and the object of which will be the General's defeat by the largest mejority ever rolled up in Virginia. The men engaged in th's movement say the General is not a republican and never was, that he would as soon be a free trader as a protectionist, or a debt payer as a repudiator, so that it would suit his purpose; that his own personal aggrandizement is his sole object, and that in defeating him they will not only be beloing Virginia, but also the republican party thereof.

WHEN MR. CLEVELAND was President be not only forced the few democratic editors to whom he gave insignificant offices to sbandon their papers, and prohibited all democratic office holders from subscribing to democratic election funds and from all other sorts of partisanism except the exer ci e of the bare privilege of voting the democratic ticket, but he even removed a U. Sdistrict attorney for no other reason than the fact that being unexpectedly called upon to address his fellow democrats upon one occasion, he had complied with that request. Now, that Mr. Harrison is President, republican office holders, so far from being prohibited from parti-an work, are stimulated to take entire control of all such work. In Virginia they run primaries and ward meetings, manage county and State conventions, and are almost the only stumpers General Mabone has. U.S. District Attorney Lurty is now stumping in the Valley, and Internal Revenue Collector McCaull addressed a crowd of negro Mahoneites at Farmville last Monday. The difference between now and then is as great in the matter referred to as in all others.

SENATOR DANIEL, in a recent speech, said: "Virginia had turned a system of railroads over to Mahone, upon which she held a mortgage of three million dollars, and had strengthened his hands by charters, and other legislation, which enabled him to bor row $15 000 000 on the consolidated lines. Using his position to secure legislation fav orable to his plans. Mahone had a bill passed to give another mortgage priority, thereby swindling the State cut of her interest. He wrecked the road, paid for labor and supplies in sorip, and then, through John S. Wise, bought this scrip up at fifty cents on the dollar, and secured an order from the United States Court that these claims be paid at face value." This is a grave charge I: is brought by a Virginia U S. Senator against a candidate for Governor of Virginia. But, it is old, has been brought again and again, and has never been refuted. Buylog laborars' claims at fifty cents in the dollar, large sum of money The schoolmaster was like and large sum of money. The schoolmaster was like and large sum of money. laborers' claims at fifty cents in the dollar, and then having laws passed making them

Harrison down to the mest insignificant member of his party, the measure referred to seems to be the only one the republicans a e disposed to push. Well, they will doubtless attempt it, but the democrats will oppose it, and as the latter have the Constitution, the law, precedent, and the spirit of free institutions on their side, and, unfortunately for the country, what is of more effect than all else, a minority sufficiently large, they will be successful, though the fight, if persisted in by the republicans, will consume the entire session, to the exclusion of the material interests of the country,

PRIVATE DALZELL, in respect of the recent removal of Corporal Tanner from the office of commissioner of pensions, says: "One might as well be a nigger as a private under any administration, for all despise him and seek to humiliate him." There is no doubt of the fact that the Corporal was only carrying out Mr. Harrison's instructions, to "be liberal to the boys," and it does seem right hard that he was punished for obeying orders. But the Private and ed and locked up. The girl is much emacithe Corporal, and all the other members of ated and apparently half starved. the G. A. R. will continue to throw up their hats for Mr. Harrison all the same. Mr. Harrison, like General Rosscraus, don't like 'rebels," and for that reason the G. A. R. will stand by him to a man.

terested in the welfare of either or both, irrespective of politics, an opportunity of electing a man who is not only equally interested with them, but whose energy and perseverance will make his interest effective. Their support of him will be conducive to their own prosperity, and they should add to his effectiveness in the legislature by giving him a rousing majority.

THE Philadelphia Record says: "Perhaps the luckiest veteran who holds a federal of fice by appointment is the Register of the Treasury, General Rosecrans." Right you are! But for the failure of the Confederates to adopt General Jackson's advice General Rosecrans would have been driven into the Rappahannock river on the night of his ignal defeat at Fredericksburg, and he is now drawing four thousand dollars a year as Register of the Treasury and an equal sum as a retired military officer.

FROM WASHINGTON. [Special Correspondence of the Alexa. GAZETTA]

WASHINGTON. D. C., Sept. 18, 1889. Mr. Goff, of West Virginia, who asserted positively that a recount of the votes cast at the election in his State last fall would prove that he had been elected Governor thereof, but which assertion has just been demonstrated to have been entirely erroneous, is here to day. It is rumored that its monopoly for seventeen years beyond the either through the possible resignation of expiration of its present patents. Secretary Biaine or Noble, or the transfer of Attorney General Miller to the Supreme Bench, there will be a vacancy in the Cabi net, and that it will be filled by Mr. Goff.

There is no doubt of the fact that Senator Cameron's influence with the present administration is not as great as it might be, and that frequently his recommendations for office are treated with indifference. He tried recently to have a Virginia friend, who had been transferred, reinstated in his former position, but his appeal was not only unsuccessful but received scant courtesy. He accepts the situation with as good grace as possible, but is evidently biding his time.

The government departments here are gradually being filled with negroes. A negro was yesterday appointed chief of the pay division in the 4th Auditor's office. Sev eral white republicans were applicants for the place, but they were turned down in order that it might be given to a negro.

Strong efforts are being made to have Mr. recently removed from the Tanner, recently removed from the ed recorder of deeds of this city, but the people of the city want a city man appointed, and are reminding the President of his promise to appoint district men to district

Langston, the negro contestant for the eest in Congress to which Mr. Venable, of Petersburg, Virginia, was elected, will leave here this evening for Kentucky, where he will make a speech. He will go from there to Onio, where he will speak for Foreaker, but will soon return, as some new evidence has been discovered in his contested case which he must try to refute. He says that for every adverse criticism upon his support of General Mahone he sees or hears ten of approval.

Private dispatches received here to-day say that Mr. Gordon, chairman of the Virginia democratic State committee, is improving, and that it is pos-sible he will soon be able to go to Alexandria and take charge at headquarters there. Mr Gorden was nominated for the State Senate by the sena tori I district convention that met at Culpeper today.

End of a Wrecked Career.

An East Caror delet, Ill., dispatch says The sequel to the most sensational tragedy that ever took place in southern Illinois, occurred here this morning. Monroe Gray, a school teacher well known in Monroe and Randolph counties, shot himself through the beart and added another chapter to the terrible crime of five years ago At that time Gray was teaching school in Columbia III. He had a bandsome wife and two bright children. Among the vi-i ors at his home was William Dietsch, the wealthiest farmer in southern Illinois. Dietsch lived like a prince, and his amours were open and notorious. Mrs. Gray was amours were open and notorious. Mrs. Gray was charmed by his lavish display and his prepossess. large sum of money The schoolmaster was like adamant. He shot Dietsch first, killing him with and then having laws passed making them worth their face value! And yet there are laborers, who can read, who say General Mahone is the friend of labor.

CONGRESSMAN, not Private, Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, republican, says that at the coming session of Congress "some measure will be introduced tending to insure fair elections in the South" From President Harrison down to the most insignificant but wo shots. Then he placed the revolver at his two shots, Then he placed the revolver at his two shots. Then he placed the revolver at his two shots. Then he placed the revolver at his two shots. Then he placed the revolver at his wife's heart. She screamed and pleaded in terror. There was a report, and she fell dead upon the body of her paramour. Gray was arrested, and, after the trial, he was pardoned after serving two months. He brought his children and the wreck of his household to Carondelet. He was a changed man ever afterward. He never smited or attended nunsements. His melancholy was observed by every one. He was devoted to his children—a girl of nineteen and a boy of sixteen. Yesterday he wrote a long letter to his children, telling them in the most endearing terms that his burden was too heavy. He detailed how a month burden was too heavy. He detailed how a month ago he had made all arrangements to shoot him-self, and the weapon failed. Twice since he at-tempted his life and failed. Last night he lay down on the floor, placed the same weapon to h heart, and this time it acted with deadly effect.

A DASTARDLY CRIME.-Louise Schooms. ker, a girl of fifteen, disappeared from her parents' residence, in New Orleans, over a year ago, and no trace could be found until vesterday, when Sergeant Kenny, hearing that a white girl was kept prisoner in the rear of a barber shop on Felicite street, kept by Gus Reed, a negro, went to the place and broke open the door, which was locked. As he entered the rear room he saw Miss Schoomaker, naked, except for a tattered undergarment. Her face was pale as death and her eyes shone with insane fear as she rushed toward the sergeant, and clinging frantically to him, cried piteously, "Save me, save me." Kenny with difficulty persuaded ber that she was now in friendly hands, and the half crezy girl finally become quiet. Assistance was summoned, clothing procured, and the girl properly cared for. She states that Reed bad kept her locked up for over a year, subjecting her to constant outrage. Reed was arrest-

Elopements.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 17 .- Rev. Charles Bohannon, a blind Baptist preacher, twentyseven years o'd, eloped on Saturday with Miss Vica Alford, the twenty year old daughter of an old Catholic family. She had been intended for a nunnery. Falling in love with her Bohannon had converted her. This caused her mother to hasten preparations for her entering the convent. The elopement prevented this. The mother found the two and drove them from the house of the groom's aunt, where they had gone. The next day she sent for her daught er, pretending that she had relented. Get ting the girl in her power, she spirited her away, and the groom has since been seeking for her in vain. He got out a writ of habeas cerpus to-day, but the girl's mother denies any knowledge of her daughter's where abouts.

WILKESBARRE, Sept. 18 - Mrs. Ellen Langdon, the wife of a well-to do Englishman living in the northern part of the city, eloped Monday with Lewis Reese, a machinist employed in the sxle works. The woman is 27 years of age and pretty. She took with her $300 belonging to her husband, and left this note: "Good by, Tom. I am going with the man I love." Tommy, the woman's two-year-old boy, accompanied the elopers. Two of her children, aged 11 and 5 years, were left behind, Powder Unearthed.

San Francisco, Sept. 18 - Giant powder enough to destroy the entire neighborhood was unearthed a few days ago by James Haskins as he was digging on his lot, and the story of the find has just come out. The property is in the most precipitous district in the city, and Haskins sought to level off o'clock. the ground. His methods met with strong objections from the neighbors, and it is supposed some of these adopted a desperate game to get Haskins out of the way and blow up his property. As Haskins was working about the place with a pick he up turned what looked like a stick of candy On looking closer he saw the word "giant' stamped on it. His heart stood still for a moment as he realized it was giant powder. Three dynamite bombs and twenty-one sticks of giant powder were unearthed within short compass. This was turned over to the police, who have since been at work on the case without satisfactory results. Across the street nearly 700 children were at school and had a chance blow from Haskins pick exploded the giant powder, half the families at that end of town would have been in mourning.

MAYS LANDING, N. J. Sept. 18 -- The court room was crowded this morning with people auxious to hear the proceedings in the case of Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton, indicted for the atrocious assault upon her child's nurse, Mary Donnelly, and to get a glimpse of the now famous principals in the affair. The case was called at 11 o'clock, and at the same time the cuter doors were swung open and Mrs. Hamilton entered, leaning on the arm of Captain Perry, her counsel. Immediately following them entered Mrs. Rupp, the proprietress of Noll Cottage, and Mary Ann Donnelly, the wounded nurse. Mr. Robert Ray Hamilton a few minutes later entered the court room. He did not look toward his wife. The work of selecting a jury was quickly disposed of, the full quoto being selected in a comparatively short time. Mrs. Hamilton frequently sobbed aloud during the selection of the jury, and gave every evidence of hopeless despondance Prosecutor of the pleas Thompson opened the case. Dr. Crosby described the nature of the wound, and added that Mrs. Donnelly was now out of danger. Mary Ann Donnelly then was next called. She testified that, on the morning of the assault, she responded to Mrs. Hamilton's call to lock her trunk. Upon reaching the door of the room she saw that Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton had been quarrelling and that Mr. Hamilton's shirt had been torn off. At Mr. Hamilton's request she went in search of a policeman, but could not find one. She returned to the room when Mrs. Hamilton seized her by the throat and called her a vile name. The witnessed grappled with Mrs. Hamilton and demanded that she withdraw the epithet. Mrs. Hamilton then threw a bottle at her. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton then grappled and the witness stood in the door, which was half open, when Mrs. Hamilton suddenly sprang towards her and drove the knife into her side. The court then adjourned until 2

Mrs. Hamilton was led from the court room sobbing bitterly, while her husband. Mrs. Rupp and the nurse went out together.

Steamer on Fire

QUEBEC, Sept. 18 .- The Signal Service 10 ports that the steamer Canopus, from Cape to the Signal Service Bureau indicate that frosts Breton, with coal for Montreal, was off of one or two at a time, as if thrown by some one or something. This occurs on the farm of Mr. J. Ambler Brooke, about a mile from town, and has continued for several days, the place of the falling being in the midst of a field near the railroad, and near a cabin or small house. The stones come from different directions, and generally towards the house, and have struck several next fall. This mystery is vouched for by some of our responsible citizens who were present and saw the stones in the air and saw them fall. Monday the place was vis wearing gray clothes, placed in the cab and ited by a hundred or more people, but no stones fell. I am told the stones (many of which were picked up after they fell) seem to be similar to those around, and yet their movement can't be accounted for, as there are no brushwood, bushes, or anything nea in which any one could secret himself posed to play this as a trick. Mr. Brooke has witnessed this phenomenon on this farm in person and testifies to its truth, as do also several of his family and neighbors.
